

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23,

MOURNING THE FALLEN BRAVE.

References in Legislature to
Canada's Slain
Sons.

PREMIER'S TRIBUTE

Speaks Eloquently of Gallantry
Displayed on the Field.

SYMPATHY FOR RELATIVES

Mr. Whitney Concurs in the Panegyric—Speakers in the Debate on the Address,

Yesterday's session of the Legislature was rendered dramatic by allusions to the sons of Canada who have fallen on the African veldt. The subject was introduced by the Premier as soon as the House met. In eloquent words Mr. Ross bore tribute to the bravery of the gallant soldiers who have given up their lives for the empire, and expressed sympathy with those who were bereaved. Mr. Whitney in simple and touching phrases concurred in the sentiments uttered by the