

don, Ontario, has abandoned its private bill for the ratification by the Ontario Legislature of certain provisions contained in an act passed by the Dominion Parliament, last session. The company finds that the amendment to the general public act of Ontario now before the House will cover all requirements.

---

---