

Around the Corridors.

Mr. E. F. B. Johnston obtained $500 from the Clerk of the Legislature on Wednesday for witness fees and conduct money. Mr. Johnston has now had $1,500, and Mr. McPherson $2,000.

The Standing Orders Committee met yesterday morning and put through about 46 bills. They adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Mr. T. H. Preston (Brantford) occupied the chair. The fees for 87 applications for bills have been paid.

A large number of new settlers for the New Liskeard neighborhood went in Friday, when the new steamboat service on Lake Temiskaming was opened. The Canadian Steamship Company has put on four new steamers, and a daily service will be given between Temiskaming and New Liskeard.

Manager H. C. Farnham of the Mineral Range Iron Mining Company called at the Bureau of Mines yesterday morning. He will take in a drill to explore his iron deposits in Mayo Township.

The Provincial Factory Inspectors have issued a warning that John Kay of Aylmer, Que., who is posing as an Ontario boiler inspector, and giving certificates for stationary engineers, is not an Ontario inspector.