

same member asking for details of cost, etc., of the distribution of Public Service bulletins.

Other inquiries will be made of the Ministers by J. C. Ramsden, Southwest Toronto, regarding the appointment of C. F. Bulmer to the position of Clerk of the Executive Council; by Malcolm Lang, Cochrane, who desires to know "what relation" the present Registrar of East Kent is to J. B. Clark, who was elected member of that riding and subsequently retired in favor of Hon. Manning Doherty; by Lieut.-Col. J. S. Cooper, Northwest Toronto, who asks if the Government is furnishing funds to prosecute the appeal of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin from the judgment of Hon. Justice Middleton at the Sandwich Assizes.

Costs of O.T.A. Probe.

W. E. N. Sinclair, South Ontario, also asks for details of the cost of the committee of the Legislature appointed last session to investigate the workings of the O.T.A.; John O'Neill, Southeast Toronto, asks for a list of Government commissions appointed since November 11, 1919, and Mr. Sinclair, in still another inquiry, asks if the Government authorized and paid for the publication of Attorney-General Raney's speech before the Canadian Bar Association at Ottawa.

K. S. Stover, Algoma, asks what sums of money in respect to timber dues have been received by the Department of Lands and Forests arising out of "the so-called timber probe," and J. McLeod, Stormont, and W. J. Bragg, Durham, seek information as to the qualifications, previous occupation, etc., of Clarkson W. James, recently appointed King's Printer, and of Arthur T. Wilgress, appointed Chief Librarian.
