

Mr. Raney added the interesting information that he knew of one county where the High Constable was "ninety-odd years of age."

The act to amalgamate the office of Sheriff in Toronto and York county stood over, as Mr. Raney said that he might have some suggestion to make as to taking care of the Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff who might be retired under this act.

An amendment was passed to the Veterans Land Grant Act, setting forth that no land shall be located under the act after April 30, 1923. Hon. Beniah Bowman announced that there were about 1,500 scrips still outstanding.

Registry Bill Holsted.

When the bill regarding the amalgamation of Registry Offices in Toronto and York was called, Hon. Mr. Ferguson said he had been informed by Hon. George S. Henry that arrangements were being made for a conference, and it was hoped the various parties affected by the act might get together. The Attorney-General, for that reason, held the bill over.
