ONTARIO LEGISLATURE OPENS WITH DUE FORMALITY

The fourth session of the Eighteenth Legislature of Ontario was opened yesterday afternoon with the customary pomp and circumstance, with his Honor Lieutenant-Governor Dr. Herbert A. Bruce officiating for the first time in the formalities of the ceremony. Illustrations above show: Upper left, his Honor Dr. Bruce in his new Lieutenant-Governor's uniform, worn for the first time in public yesterday; upper right, Mrs. Bruce arriving at the Parliament Buildings, accompanied by an aide, for the ceremonial; and, below, his Honor inspecting the guard in front of the Parliament Buildings.
