

APRIL 27

Session's End Comes Today

The third session of Ontario's twentieth legislature will be prorogued today, it was announced by Premier Hepburn early this (Thursday) morning.

With practically all the departmental estimates, totalling $63,000,000, voted in a single day's sitting, the Premier was able to declare at 1:45 a.m. that the seasonal windup was in sight.
