

United States Troops Take Legislature Seats in Historic Ceremony

For the first time in the history of Ontario, United States soldiers were welcomed in the Legislature Chamber of the Province yesterday. The visitors were members of the 101st Infantry Regiment of the 20th Infantry Division, United States Army, who came to Toronto in connection with the Victory Loan campaign. (1) Brigadier Thomas Troland, in command of the detachment, speaking in the Chamber. Premier Heppburn is on the left, and Hon. North Winship, United States Consul-

General in Toronto, on the right. (2) The United States soldiers seated in the Legislature. (3) Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews inspecting the Garand semi-automatic rifle of one of the soldiers. (4) Private, First Class, George Hammond, who occupied Premier Heppburn's seat in the Legislature. (5) Private, First Class, Henry Wallace (left), chatting with Staff Sergeant Charles Whitlaw of the Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps during the luncheon at the King Edward Hotel.—Staff Photos.

February 17