

BACK TO THE SCENE of his former triumphs came Mitchell Hepburn yesterday. This picture shows the one-time Premier and Provincial Treasurer occupying his new seat in "Bad Boys' Row" in the Legislature as indicated by arrow. It marked his first appearance in the House since his resignation from the Cabinet. On his right in the picture are Leopold Macaulay (Prog. Con., South York) and Opposition Leader George Drew. Mr. Hepburn remained in the Chamber for more than two hours, but did not speak. However, he will speak in the Budget debate.
