

Liberals Balked As Pay Withheld

Liberal members who had thoughts of ducking the final hours of the Legislature session yesterday and last night were stopped in their tracks when a temporary order was put through holding up payment of their sessional indemnity. The exodus of members was becoming so alarming that, to prevent an embarrassing situation in the House, Premier Conant is reported to have taken this means of keeping them within calling distance.