

February 23

A proud son, Edward John, was first to congratulate Premier George A. Drew at his desk in the House after session was adjourned.

In driving snow, Lieutenant-Governor Matthews inspected his guard of honor, a detachment from H.M.C.S. York. It was the first time the navy had formed a guard for the opening.