

March 29

consumption of alcoholic beverages.

"These conditions vary greatly throughout the Province and a solution which would be satisfactory in one locality may be wholly unsatisfactory in another," he continued. "For that reason, we have greatly extended the local option provisions and have assured complete control by local popular vote of the type of distribution in their own localities."

When the Minister concluded his brief outline of the provisions of the bill, the House burst into applause.