Minnie E. O'Hara 1863-1945

Minnie was the elder of two daughters born to James Jr. and Mary Jane (Lear) O'Hara. She never married; thus living with her brother Frank for many years. Minnie was a well-known character in Madoc, as her favourite means of transportation was her bicycle and she was remembered as steering her way around the village. She was also the family's photographer, taking pictures using a tripod and a black cloth over her head. Like most O'Hara females, she was also very musical, giving music lessons to many children in Madoc. Minnie died in 1945, the last of her generation of O'Haras.
