THE EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Our October Meeting was a very enjoyable evening of members' slides of summer shipwatching, past and present, and provided a great variety of material. A large crowd attended, including many out-of-town members. Our thanks to Roger Chapman for his services as projectionist.

If you receive this issue, you needn't worry; you are paid up for the 1988-1989 T.M.H.S. season. Those who have not renewed, however, will be missing their "Scanner", so if any of your friends remark that "Scanner" has not arrived, you might put a bug in their ears about their overdue renewals. We are very pleased with the number of renewals that have been received so far and thank members for their early remittance.

In the New Member Department, a hearty welcome goes out to Philip Clayton of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and to James N. McIver of Arctic Bay, North West Territories. We really do have members all over North America! And a big welcome back to all who have renewed for the new year, including several who have been away from the Society for several years, but who missed receiving "Scanner" and now are back in the fold.
