THE EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Our October Meeting featured members' slides illustrating their summer travels and shipwatching activities. The subjects were varied and interesting, and the photography excellent. We thank all those who participated, and special thanks go to Roger Chapman, who served as our projectionist.

We wish to thank all those who sent us their renewals for the 1990-1991 season. If you should be wondering whether you remembered to renew, do not fear, for if you receive this issue, then all is well. If any of your friends should mention not receiving this issue, however, you might remind them that their fees still must be outstanding.

In the New Member Department, a hearty welcome goes out to Charles Torrey of Saline, Michigan, to Margaret Schulzke of Toronto, to Bill Hewig of Charlestown, Massachusetts, to Robert K. Tompsett III of Paw Paw, Michigan, and to James A. Baumhofer of St. Paul, Minnesota.
