

The most spectacular of the wrecks on Rock of Ages, where CUMBERLAND was lost, was GEORGE M. COX, seen here in a photo taken May 27, 1933.

ANGLIAN LADY is downbound in the St. Mary's River on July 12, 1991, towing YANKCANUCK. Photo by the Editor.

The newly reconstructed ALPENA is upbound in the lower harbour at Sault Ste. Marie in a July 11, 1991, photo by the Editor.