

WINONA and the Northern Navigation sidewheeler BRITANNIC are seen at the Grand Trunk Railway wharf at Collingwood in 1907.

This excellent photo of WINONA, from the collection of member G. I. "Buck" Longhurst, shows the steamer in winter quarters at Gore Bay, Ontario.

On October 2, 1993, the McKeil tugs KAY COLE, GLENBROOK and GLENSIDE tow HOCHELAGA out the Toronto East Gap en route to overseas breakers. Photo by the Editor.
