

The date is October 11, 1972, as ONTADOC departs Gibraltar, bound for Istanbul in tandem tow with G.G. POST behind the deep-sea tug KORAL.

Andrew Carnegie's Pittsburgh Steamship Co. ships did have a white 'P' on their stacks as shown in a view of LAFAYETTE supplied courtesy of Kenneth E. Thro.

As promised last issue, here is the Young photo showing GLENFINNAN in the transition between Playfair and C.S.L. colours in 1926.
