This early photo shows 201's sister barge, 202, as she appeared on salt water before her 1897 lengthening.

One of the first boats running in 1993 and now in her last season as a steamer, S.T. CRAPO was photographed from the Ambassador Bridge by Jim Kidd on May 24, 1951.
