

CHEYENNE is inbound at Toronto's Western Gap in a photo by J. H. Bascom, c.1932.

James M. Kidd photographed CHEYENNE upbound in the Welland Canal in the early 1930's.

CHEYENNE, in her new colours but still with the tall stack, was caught c.1937 by the camera of Capt. W. J. Taylor.