It will be noted that we have prefaced certain port listings with the words "Partial List". This means that we received a "should be" report in advance but not a personal observation. Confirmation of the lay-ups at those ports from local T.M.H.S. members would be greatly appreciated. Any additional listings or corrections will appear in the March issue.

Meanwhile, we should like to extend sincere thanks to the following members who have contributed information for this report: Jim Bartke, Neil Bauman, Terry Beahen, Jim Bearman, Rene Beauchamp, David Bull, Ken Davis, Don Dube, Ken Hillyer, Gerald Hutton, Brad Jolliffe, Ron Konkol, Andy LaBorde, George Lee, Buck Longhurst, Bob MacDonald, Mac Mackay, Alan Mann, Dan McCormick, John Michael, Bill Moran, Carmen Paris, Greg Rudnick, Albert Short, Jimmy Sprunt, Vern Sweeting, Duncan White and George Williams.

Is your name not there? Then we didn't hear from you. Perhaps you can help with our follow-up listing in March - but ONLY if you send us your report.

And a final word - a late report for three small Lake Ontario ports:

Oshawa: J. M. LODER (excursion), RHEA (ex USN minesweeper).

Whitby: CARL M. (tug), HALTON (tug), R.C.L. TUG 11 (tug), WORKBOAT NO. 10 (tug).

Pickering: CAPTAIN M. B. DONNELLY (barge, former tug), PRIMROSE (former dredge, being converted to restaurant).

CEDARVILLE PHOTOS

We always try to identify the source of photos used in "Scanner" as long as we know from whence they came. Two photos we used were not labelled as to the name of the photographer, so our CEDARVILLE photopage lacked the usual credits for them. To set the record straight, and give thanks where due, we can identify the stern view of CEDARVILLE with smoke, and the christening day view taken from atop the A-frame, as being Macaulay photos, supplied through the courtesy of Ronald F. Beaupre.

Our apologies for the inadvertent oversight.
