

EMILY P. WEED was in Western Transit colours when photographed in the Weitzel Lock at the Soo in 1894.

This drydock view of EMILY P. WEED in Northern Steamship Co. livery may have been taken in 1896. The gentleman on the fore-castle head might be Capt. McDonald.

Seen in 1897, SEVONA is rigged for grain and is flying both her SEVONA and EMILY P. WEED burgees.
