

OCEAN looked like this after her June 19, 1895, accident with the gates at Lock 17 in the Cornwall Canal.

A very pretty picture caught OCEAN undergoing spring fitout in Muir's Pond at Port Dalhousie. In the background is SIR S. L. TILLEY.

PERSIA, MELBOURNE and OCEAN (right) are seen in winter quarters at Toronto early in the new century. Note OCEAN's new square pilothouse.