MEETINGS

Saturday, February 7th - 2:00 p.m. at the Museum. This will be something a bit different. Michael Poborochuk will present "Vladivostok to the Great Lakes", an illustrated account of the trip that brought his small yacht to Toronto where it is wintering.

PLEASE NOTE VERY CAREFULLY THE DATE AND TIME OF THIS MEETING.

Saturday, March 7th - 2:00 p.m. at the Museum. Details in February issue.

THE EDITOR'S LOGBOOK

Our December Meeting featured the illustrated memoirs of Captain John Tackaberry, and all present enjoyed an exceptional programme. Of particular interest were the comments concerning the C.P.R. steamer MANITOBA and the photos taken aboard and of her. Our speaker hardly needed to say that the "Toby" was his favourite of all the ships in which he has served. Our thanks to Capt. Tackaberry for a splendid evening.

We should like to thank the members for the many kind comments concerning "Scanner" which were included in your Christmas greetings. It is good to know that our efforts are appreciated.

We look forward to receiving members' winter lay-up listings as soon as possible for inclusion in the February issue. Mail them to us at the address above or fax to (416) 361-2872, being certain to show the editor's name on your fax header to make sure it reaches us.

In the New Member Department, a hearty welcome goes out to John J. Ochs, of Rochester, to David Calvin, of Scarborough, and to Les Peer, of Mississauga.
