THE EDITOR'S LOGBOOK

The January Meeting, the first of our winter Saturday afternoon gatherings, took place despite the fact that the Toronto area was in the midst of a series of storms that dumped on the city an all-time record snowfall for the month of January. The meeting day itself was relatively benign, however, and a large number of members and guests enjoyed our annual theme slide show dealing with shipyards. Our thanks to all who came and brought slides to show.

We extend sincere thanks to all members who have submitted lay-up lists for inclusion in this issue. Listings for some major ports were not received in time for this issue, and they will appear in the March issue.

In the New Member Department, we extend a hearty welcome to Harold Humble of Grand Haven, Michigan, to Lawrence MacDonald, of Scarborough, and to Peter Jobe, of Mississauga. We are pleased to have you with us in the Toronto Marine Historical Society.
