

Yet another Young view shows GLENORCHY downbound in Little Rapids Cut in the early 1920's.

LEONARD B. MILLER, the ship that sank GLENORCHY, was photographed at Little Rapids by Young in 1924, the year of the accident.

Pesha view caught D. R. HANNA on the St. Clair River, where in 1907 she struck FAYETTE BROWN. The HANNA herself was lost by collision in 1919.
