

John H. Bascom caught this look at PELEE on drydock at Port Dalhousie on September 20, 1958.

Photo, courtesy Frank and Nancy Prothero, shows hull of PELEE being broken up at Port Stanley in the 1970's.

Another view from the Prothero collection shows part of the bow of PELEE still lying on the beach at Port Stanley in December 1989.