RAIL SERVICE

The Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway Company gives an hourly service between Port Dalhousie and Niagara Falls, N. Y., in either direction; also owns and operates the Port Dalhousie, St. Catharines & Thorold Electric Street Railway Company, running through the City of St. Catharines, Merritton, and Thorold; also the Niagara Falls, Wesley Park & Clifton Tramway Company, running through the City of Niagara Falls, Ont., and Lundy's Lane to Falls View.

This page has been cobbled together from an undated N.S.&T. brochure. We know, however, that it was published sometime between 1900, when the electric line was extended to Port Dalhousie, and 1911 when DALHOUSIE CITY appeared on the cross-lake route. We wish we could bring you the cover in its original colour version.
