Milton Senior of the Year nominations sought

Know a senior who makes our community better?

If so, it's time to get a nomination in for Milton's Senior of the Year Award.

Eligible recipients must be 65 years of age or older, be a current resident of Milton for at least a year and have made contributions to enhance the town in one or more of the following areas:

- arts/literature
- community service/volunteerism
- education
- environment/science
- fitness/recreation/sport
- humanitarian activities
- keeping history alive

Consideration is given based on the following additional criteria:

- past or current contribution for the community from age 55
- impact of their involvement leadership roles
- community commitment and support

Nominators are asked to submit a maximum two-page description of how the nominee is deserving of the award, as well as three letters of reference.

The deadline for entry is March 8.

Past winners include Jan Mowbray, Marsha Waldie, Mike Ledwith, Don Joyce and Ken Lamb.

Nominations will be reviewed by members of the Community Services Advisory Committee, a volunteer group of seven people.

The recipient will be notified by the end of May and will earn a certificate from the government of Ontario and monthly Milton senior transit passes for a year.

To submit a nomination or for more information, visit www.milton.ca/en/play/senioroftheyear.asp.
