IN MEMORIAM

Mom, Grandma, Great-Grandma.

Ellen M. Mountain nee "Smith"
February 8, 1931 to February 1, 2017

What I have to say is we miss you very much. Love you even more. There has been times when we wanted to come for tea and you seem to put your touch on it. Our tea hasn't tasted as good since. My birthday as you know mom was in January and in 2017 when you were ill, you sang to me from your hospital bed. It took all you had. I will never forget that as long as I live. You were the very best, strong, loving, caring mom. I know that dad had his bride. I know 13 was your favourite number, dad has been gone 13 years and your age 8 + 5 = 13 and so on. Since GOD took you home, Me, Ron, Samantha and Rebecca know your presence is there because we see during our day 13's everywhere. Anyone who knew you got to know a special person.

In Loving Memory

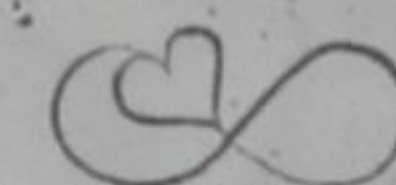

TWENTY YEARS..... and somehow our hearts have gone on because of the wonderful memories of you.

Although, it may seem we have accepted your fate, this is not so.

We miss the promise of what might have been and took for granted your zest and enthusiasm for life, your beautiful smile, the sound of your voice, your strong opinions and hearty laugh.

Though the years are many, we will forever love and treasure you in our hearts.

Love 'Ya Always,
