Rotary's Denim and Diamonds gala boosts MDHF

Dust off your hat, pull on your favourite jeans and prepare for an evening of great food and entertainment at the 5th annual Denim and Diamonds Gala.

Hosted by the Rotary Club of Milton, the April 21 event will feature live music by local band Groovy Brothers and line dancing instruction by Tammy Wyatt. Guests are invited to have their photo taken in the themed photo booth and bid on live and silent auction items.

The fun kicks off at 6:30

Robert Fry and Brian Penman, chair of the Milton District Hospital Foundation Board of Directors, are dressed to impress at last year's Denim and Diamonds gala. The Rotary Club of Milton event returns to Country Heritage Park April 21.

p.m. in the Gambrel Barn at Country Heritage Park, 8560 Tremaine Road.

Net proceeds from the event benefit the Milton District Hospital Foundation with funds earmarked for the recently expanded facility's Pediatric Family Lounge.

Early bird tickets cost $80 prior to March 21. Tickets purchased March 22 onwards cost $85 each. A table of eight costs $600.
