Three men hunted after alleged assault on Walmart security guard

Suspects left store empty-handed

Halton police are looking for three men after an alleged assault on a security guard at Milton's Walmart.

On March 7 three men entered the 1280 Steeles Ave., E., business and began to place various products in a shopping cart.

Police allege the suspects attempted to sneak the cart out of the store without paying for any of the items, but were confronted by a loss-prevention employee.

The loss-prevention officer was allegedly assaulted during this confrontation after which the three individuals fled the store.

The security guard was not injured during the altercation.

The suspects left behind their shopping cart, which contained more than $1,300 worth of merchandise.

One man is described as Middle Eastern, mid 20s-30 years old, six-foot with an athletic build and short black hair.

He wore a black long-sleeve shirt, black pants and a black Pittsburgh Pirates hat with a yellow logo.

The second individual is described as Middle Eastern, mid-20s-30s, six feet tall, with a heavy build, short black hair and short stubble. He wore a black long-sleeve shirt, black pants and a New York Yankees hat with a white logo.

The third suspect is described as white, mid-20s-30s, six-foot tall with an athletic build and short brown hair. He wore a beige sweater/jacket, grey shirt and black pants.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Halton police at 905-825-4747, ext. 2405, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
