The Province of Ontario will invest $90 million to create a Wilfrid Laurier University/Conestoga College partnership campus in Milton.

Minister of Advanced Education and Skills Development Mitzi Hunter and Halton MPP/Minister of Education Indira Naidoo-Harris made the long awaited announcement during a news conference held at the Milton Education Village (MEV) Innovation Centre on Wednesday, April 18.

The campus will be located on 150 acres of land set aside by the Town of Milton.

A 50-acre parcel will be located in the proposed Milton Education Village site, next to the Mattamy National Cycling Centre.
