Attempted arson at hair salon nets charges for 32-year-old man

JOHN BYLA

jbkila@metroland.com

A 32-year-old man has been charged after an attempted arson at a Milton hair salon Saturday (April 21) night.

Halton police report a suspect smashed the front window of Illusions Hair Salon, on Main Street East, just after 9:30 p.m.

The culprit allegedly used an accelerant in an attempt to light the premises on fire, but failed and the fire went out, according to a media release.

Det.-Const. Kevin Barkhouse said officers were already in the area and arrived on the scene almost immediately after calls came to police from witnesses.

Halton police said a man was located nearby a short time later and arrested.

Kenneth Hume, 32 and of Halton Hills, was charged with two counts of mischief under $5,000 and one count of arson.

He was held pending a bail hearing.

The investigation is continuing, said Barkhouse, as Halton police is still trying to determine a motive.

"We are not seeking any other suspects," he added.
