

Dynamos capture four golds at provincial championships

Cooper Feke has added a dominating new chapter to his provincial wrestling success story.

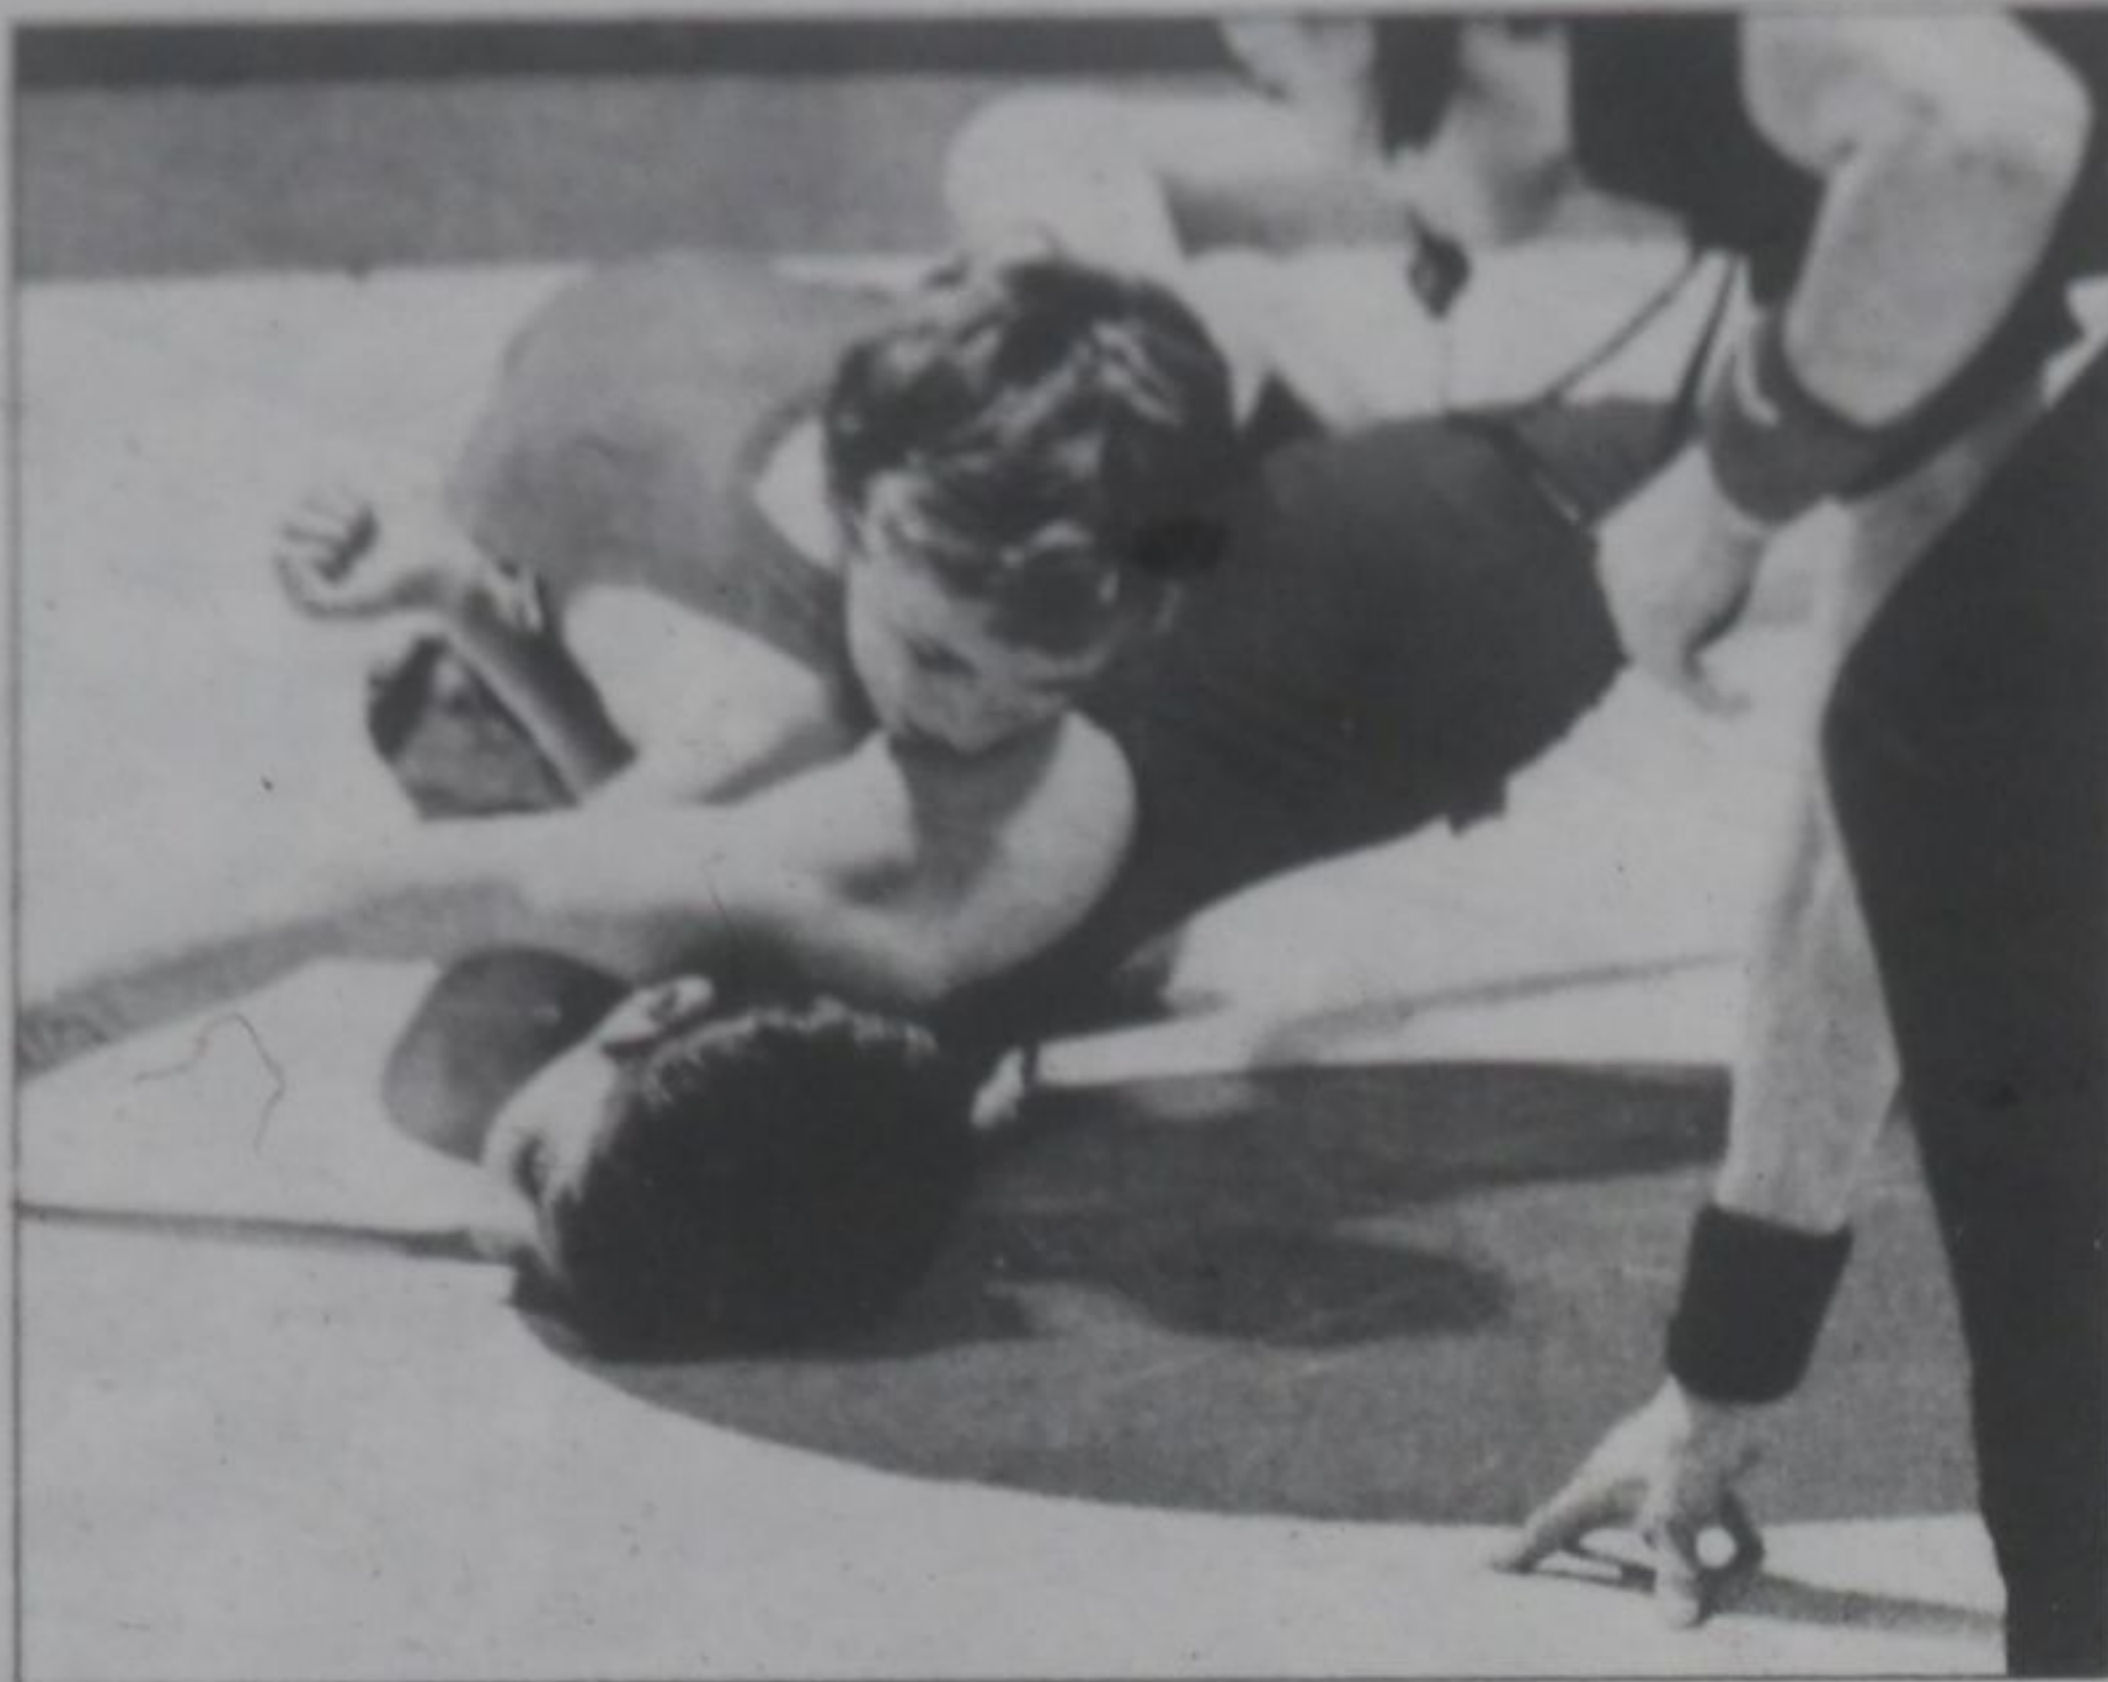

A perennial gold medalist at the Ontario Youth Festival and Bantam Championships, the Dynamos star won for the seventh time in eight years - doing so this time in the bantam boys 34.5-kilogram ranks.

Feke didn't relinquish a single point in his unbeaten run in Brampton, triumphing each of three times with a 10-0 technical superiority win - the last of which was against an opponent from Sarnia.

His was one of five gold-medal performances for the Dynamos.

Also reaching the top of the bantam boys podium - in the 53.5 and 51.5-kg classes respectively - were Brenden Black and Aaron Kelman.

three straight matches and finished with a 10-0 decision over clubmate Nathan Mitrovich.

A 14-3 semifinal victory over an Elliot Lake wrestler were the only points he surrendered.

Kelman battled to a 12-9 win against a Battle Arts

Academy (Mississauga) opponent to take the gold after a pair of decisive victories.

The Dynamos' three bantam boys championships put them second in the team standings.

Ryan Mitrovich made his first time winning gold a memorable one.

Steamrolling through his novice boys 29.3-kg division, he wasn't scored on through four technical superiority victories, punctuating his run by toppling a Brock Jr. Badgers opponent.

In his first provincial championship appearance, tyke boys grappler Nolan Vanellis went 2-0 for 27.2-kg gold.
