Arbitration award gives firefighters 3-year wage boost

TIM WHITNELL
twhitnell@metroland.com

After three years that began with face-to-face negotiations, followed by conciliation and finally arbitration, the Town of Milton and its firefighters have received an arbitration decision on a number of issues, which brings a new collective agreement closer to reality.

Although the decision of the three-person arbitration board covers significant items like retroactive pay and increases to firefighter wages, extended health and retiree benefits, there remain outstanding issues, most notably related to day shift scheduling.
