Milton man facing dangerous driving charges after weekend pursuit

A Milton man is facing numerous charges following a brief police pursuit in over the weekend.

At 8:41 a.m. on Sunday, June 10, Halton police responded to reports of a green Volkswagen being driven erratically and smashing a street sign in the Trafalgar Road and Highway 407 area.

Witnesses also reported the vehicle was missing a front tire.

Responding officers located the vehicle, at which point the driver engaged officers in a high speed pursuit.

Despite the car missing a front wheel, it accelerated to speeds estimated to be in excess of 170 kilometres per hour.

Due to the speeds reached, the condition of the fleeing motor vehicle and the fact that officers could not identify the driver, in the interest of public safety, officers terminated the pursuit.

The vehicle was later found abandoned in Mississauga.

Shortly after its recovery, the registered owner called police to report the vehicle stolen.

The man advised he was currently at a Milton hotel and police met him there.

Officers involved in the pursuit attended the hotel to take the report and the complainant quickly became the accused after officers identified him as the fleeing driver. He was arrested without incident.

Dave Simpson, 23, of Milton is charged with dangerous operation of a motor vehicle, flight from police and failure to remain at the scene of an accident. He was released on a promise to appear and an undertaking.

If you have any information regarding this incident please contact Const. Emil Olejarski of the One District uniform operations 905-825-4747 ext.: 2405.
