Halton police are investigating after nearly $30,000 worth of equipment was stolen from Milton construction sites earlier this month.

At some point between Friday, July 6 at 3:30 p.m. and Monday, July 9 at 6:30 a.m. someone entered a construction site on Leger Way and made off with an Arc 300 Amp towable welding machine valued at $7,100, police said.

At some point during the same weekend - between Saturday, July 7 at 2 p.m. and Monday, July 9 at 6:30 a.m. - a second theft was made at a construction site on Main Street West, near Given Lane.

Police say nearly $30,000 worth of equipment was stolen from construction sites in two separate incidents in Milton.

Police said someone entered the site and stole a NorthStar black and red diesel plate compactor valued at $22,000.

No suspect description is available for either of these incidents.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Halton police at 905-878-5511.

Or call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
