WHO'S RUNNING IN THE OCT. 22 ELECTION?

JOHN BKILA
jbkila@metroland.com

Current Milton Mayor Gord Krantz will have to face off against two others in the October municipal election if he hopes to continue his 38-year elected reign.

He officially became the longest-serving mayor in Ontario and of a major Canadian municipality in 2016.

Also vying for the town's top spot are Wasim Ahmed and Mian Amir Naeem.

Registration for the fall election closed Friday, July 27 at 2 p.m. — candidates began submitting their nominations on May 1.

Looking for his fourth term on Halton regional council, Gary Carr will have to defend his chair seat against Anne Marsden.

In this year's municipal election, Milton's wards will be reduced from eight to four; however, each ward will have its own individual regional and town councillors.
