

HONOURING OUR VETERANS

Clockwise from right: (From left) Canadian army veteran Dick Kirkpatrick, Mayor Gord Krantz, Charlie Perrotta, veteran of the Italian Army and Bob Williams, a Canadian Air Force veteran and past president of RCL Branch 136 Milton, are all smiles July 29, when Granite Ridge Golf Course hosted its seventh annual Veterans Appreciation Day. The event, which served to mark the 100th anniversary of the Polish Air Force, saw veterans golf and eat for free. Bill Fularczuk, 94, a veteran of the R.A.F. Polish Airforce in WW2 and part owner of Granite Ridge Golf Course, swings away. Zbys Gondek, a WWII Polish Army veteran gets a big hug from wife Maryla, who was golfing. He received The War Order of Virtuti Militari, Poland's highest military decoration for heroism and courage in the face of the enemy at war, for his action at the Battle of Monte Cassino.
