

JOINING HALTON'S FINEST

Graham Paine photos/ Metroland

Victim services support dog Journey, far right, gets reacquainted with Alissa Mendelson, who trained her at Lions Foundation of Canada Dog Guides, during the Halton Regional Police Service ceremony at the Burlington Convention Centre. The service swore in 14 new officers and held a special recognition for Journey, its first victim services unit support dog. Halton's new police officers pose for a commemorative photo, above. Cst. Jovana Minic, middle, receives her badge from Chief Stephen Tanner. Minic has been stationed in Milton and for the next 12 weeks teams up with a coach officer.

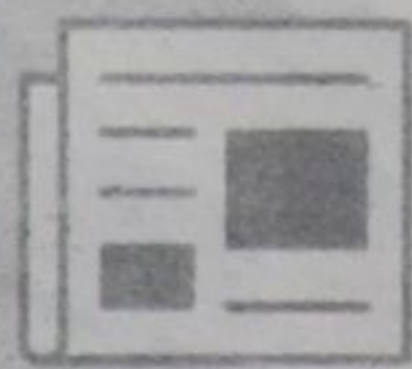

Newsletters collect the local stories you need to know and deliver them to your inbox...

Our custom-made newsletters allow you to focus in on your favourite topics. Sign up for FREE today!

EVENTS

It's your community activity planner.

LOCAL NEWS

What you NEED to know today.

OPINION

Local issues through the eyes of experts.

UNSOLVED

Follow the cases that still baffle law enforcement.

Sign up now: InsideHalton.com/newsletter