The ball rolled into the outfield where Milton Mets right fielder Connor Foley quickly scooped it up and threw to second base.

Waiting to take the throw was shortstop Aidan MacLellan, who grabbed it to make the force on the runner from first.

Coach Darren Scott was surprised by his team's casual response to the inning-ending play.

"Hey guys," he said.

"You just won."

After a few puzzled looks, the Mets' players realized their coach was right and began celebrating.

The confusion arose because it was only the fifth inning, but with a 10-0 lead over Stouffville, the out allowed the mercy rule to kick in and clinch the Ontario Baseball Association major rookie AA championship.

"The guys were so fo-
