THE GREAT GALA, A FUN FUNDRAISER FOR THE DARLING HOME FOR KIDS

EVENT CELEBRATES 20 YEARS ON OCT. 25

Guests will be transported back in time with all the glitz of the Roaring Twenties when the Great Gala celebrates 20 years later this month.

The annual Comfort & Joy Gala staff has planned for some big celebrations on the special anniversary, with TD as the presenting sponsor for an event that's being held Thursday, Oct. 25 at St. Joseph's Banquet and Convention Centre in Oakville.

The Roaring Twenties was a decade of great economic growth and widespread prosperity. With a name like the Great Gala expectations are high and organizers aim not to disappoint.

More than 300 business, civic, and community leaders will gather at the Great Gala with host Susan Hay of Global Television's Making a Difference. Give the password to enter the speakeasy and sip on gin rickys while mingling with the other guys and dolls in attendance.

A four course-meal follows with entertainment reminiscent of the era, silent and live auctions, a raffle with amazing prizes, and more.

The night will kick off with youth from the Milton Show and later guests will enjoy performances by the Doubts.

Fundraising activities include a raffle with prizes totalling over $9,500, live and silent auctions and a tower with over 40 bottles of wine that a lucky winner will take home at the end of the night.

All of the proceeds from the Great Gala, presented by TD will directly support the Darling Home for Kids, a state-of-the-art facility providing respite, hospice palliative and residential care for children medically fragile and technology dependent through therapeutic programs and services. This black-tie event so far has raised over $2.7 million.

The St. Joseph's Banquet & Convention Centre is located at 300 River Oaks Blvd. E., in Oakville.
