

MULTI-FAITH VIGIL

Graham Paine/Metroland

Mendel Slavin, 13, plays a traditional Jewish song as his mother Sara and representatives from the Jewish, Islamic and Christian faiths join with community members, local politicians and Halton police Inspector John Van der Lillie at a multi-faith vigil at Milton Town Hall. The vigil, organized by Milton resident Jaxx Swadi, was held to honour the 11 lives lost in the Tree of Life Synagogue mass shooting Oct. 27 in Pittsburgh.

Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC)

Member Organizations required for SEAC

The Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC) seeks local organizations for membership. Under Ontario's Education Act, every school board must have a SEAC. This Committee makes recommendations to the Board concerning the establishment, development and delivery of special education programs and services.

The Halton District School Board's (HDSB) SEAC is seeking additional local organizations to become members of the committee. The association or organization of parents must operate locally within the jurisdiction of the Board, and be affiliated with a provincial association/organization dedicated to the well-being or interests of exceptional children. The organization must meet all other requirements as outlined in Regulation 464/97 for membership to SEAC.

Organizations interested in participating on SEAC for the HDSB are asked to submit a letter explaining their interest, including their nomination for SEAC representative and alternate for the association by Friday, November 23, 2018.

Community Members needed for SEAC

The HDSB also requires a maximum of three "members-at-large" to serve on SEAC. The Committee, an advisory group to the Board, will bring forward information and recommendations regarding programs and services for exceptional pupils. Two trustees and up to 12 members representing local associations also serve on SEAC.

The "members-at-large" must have the following qualifications:

- a Canadian citizen, age 18 years or older
- a resident within the jurisdiction of the HDSB
- a public school supporter

Board employees are not eligible for appointment.

Interested community members should submit their application (resumé) with a letter indicating the strengths they would bring to this position by Friday, November 30, 2018.

Submit application or letter to: Lorna Goodrow,
New Street Education Centre, 3250 New Street, Burlington, Ontario L7N 1M8
