HANDCRAFTED BREAD AND TREATS USING QUALITY INGREDIENTS

Canada's largest bakery franchise, Cobs Bread, opened in Milton in November.

Milton franchise owner Adil Hanif, along with Milton Mayor Gord Krantz cut the ribbon to open the Milton location — Cobs' 23rd Ontario location. They celebrated the grand opening by presenting a $10,000 donation to the Milton District

Hospital Foundation. The donation was made from proceeds raised from Cobs Community Day, which took place Nov. 14, and is the largest community fundraising donation of all the Cobs Bread locations. Owners of all Cobs Bread bakeries are actively involved in their communities, which is a cornerstone of the brand. Cobs Bread carries handcrafted bread and fresh treats, like cinnamon buns, scones and butter tarts, all baked fresh every day at each location. They offer traditional sandwich breads, artisanal loaves and more. At the end of each day, all leftover product is donated to local charities.

Cobs is open from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day, and they're located in the Willmott Plaza on the corner of Santa Maria Boulevard and Derry Road, right across from the Milton Sports Centre.
