

LOCAL GROCER SHOWS HIS HOLIDAY SPIRIT

TO THE EDITOR:

Sometimes Christmas is not merry and bright. Sometimes our fellow Miltonians are lonely or hungry at this, the most festive of seasons.

So for the past six years, local churches have banded together to provide a holiday meal with all the trimmings.

Our church, Faith United, always procures and roasts more than 120 pounds of turkey and John's No Frills on Derry Road always helps us by ordering the turkeys.

It warms my heart that once again, this generous grocer is donating all of the turkeys for this Christmas dinner.

To some it may seem a small gesture, but to seniors, the homeless, and those accessing the services of the Salvation Army, Food for Life, the Goods for Nothing Store, Milton Transitional Housing and Community Living North Halton, it means a great deal.

During the hustle and bustle of Christmas, please take a moment to thank the staff at John's No Frills for stepping up to provide a turkey dinner for those in Milton who need some holiday cheer.

FAITH UNITED HOLDING CAROLS AND COOKIES

A local church is getting in the neighbourly spirit this Christmas.

Faith United - which meets in the Masonic Hall (6321 Regional Rd. 25, just south of Louis St. Laurent Avenue) - is holding a Carols and Cookies get together Sunday, Dec. 16, at 7 p.m.

The free event is open to all Miltonians, especially those who live in the area.

A short sjngalong will be followed by some tasty treats and an opportunity to meet your neighbours.
