CFUW TO AWARD 3 SCHOLARSHIPS TO CELEBRATE 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Next year, the Canadian Federation of University Women will be celebrating 100 years.

During that time, the organization has been dedicated to the advancement of women and girls through education, equality, and social justice.

CFUW Milton and District is awarding three $5,000 scholarships in honour of the CFUW's anniversary and two of the chapter's longtime members, Margaret Gray and Gwen Dryden.

Gray is a founding member of the Milton club, having served for many years on the executive, and is remembered by fellow teachers and students for her lively humour and dedication to French studies.

Dryden was a longtime member of CFUW, serving locally, regionally and nationally in the organization. While serving on the executive, she kept the members on their grammatical toes as her experience as an English teacher was evident. She was also the recipient of the local Athena Leadership Award and active in the Milton community.

It is only fitting that, given these ladies' long and successful teaching careers in Milton, they are awarding these scholarships in their names.

Eligible female candidates must have a connection with the Town of Milton, and be pursuing an advanced education after completing one full year of a post-secondary course at a university, college or trade school. Full details are available on the CFUW Milton and District website: <https://www.cfuwmilton.ca/scholarships/>.
