Police are looking to identify a man with a taste for the highlands.

On Nov. 7, a white man in his 30s exited the LCBO at 830 Main St. E. with several bottles of Scotch. The man is reported to have taken six bottles of The Macallan Gold Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky, valued at $74.95 each, and two bottles of The Balvenie 12 year old Doublewood Scotch Whisky.

The man made his getaway as a passenger in a red Toyota Yaris.

He was wearing a black three-quarter length jacket with a hood covering a baseball cap, and has a scruffy beard and moustache and is described as being five-foot-eight and about 170 pounds.

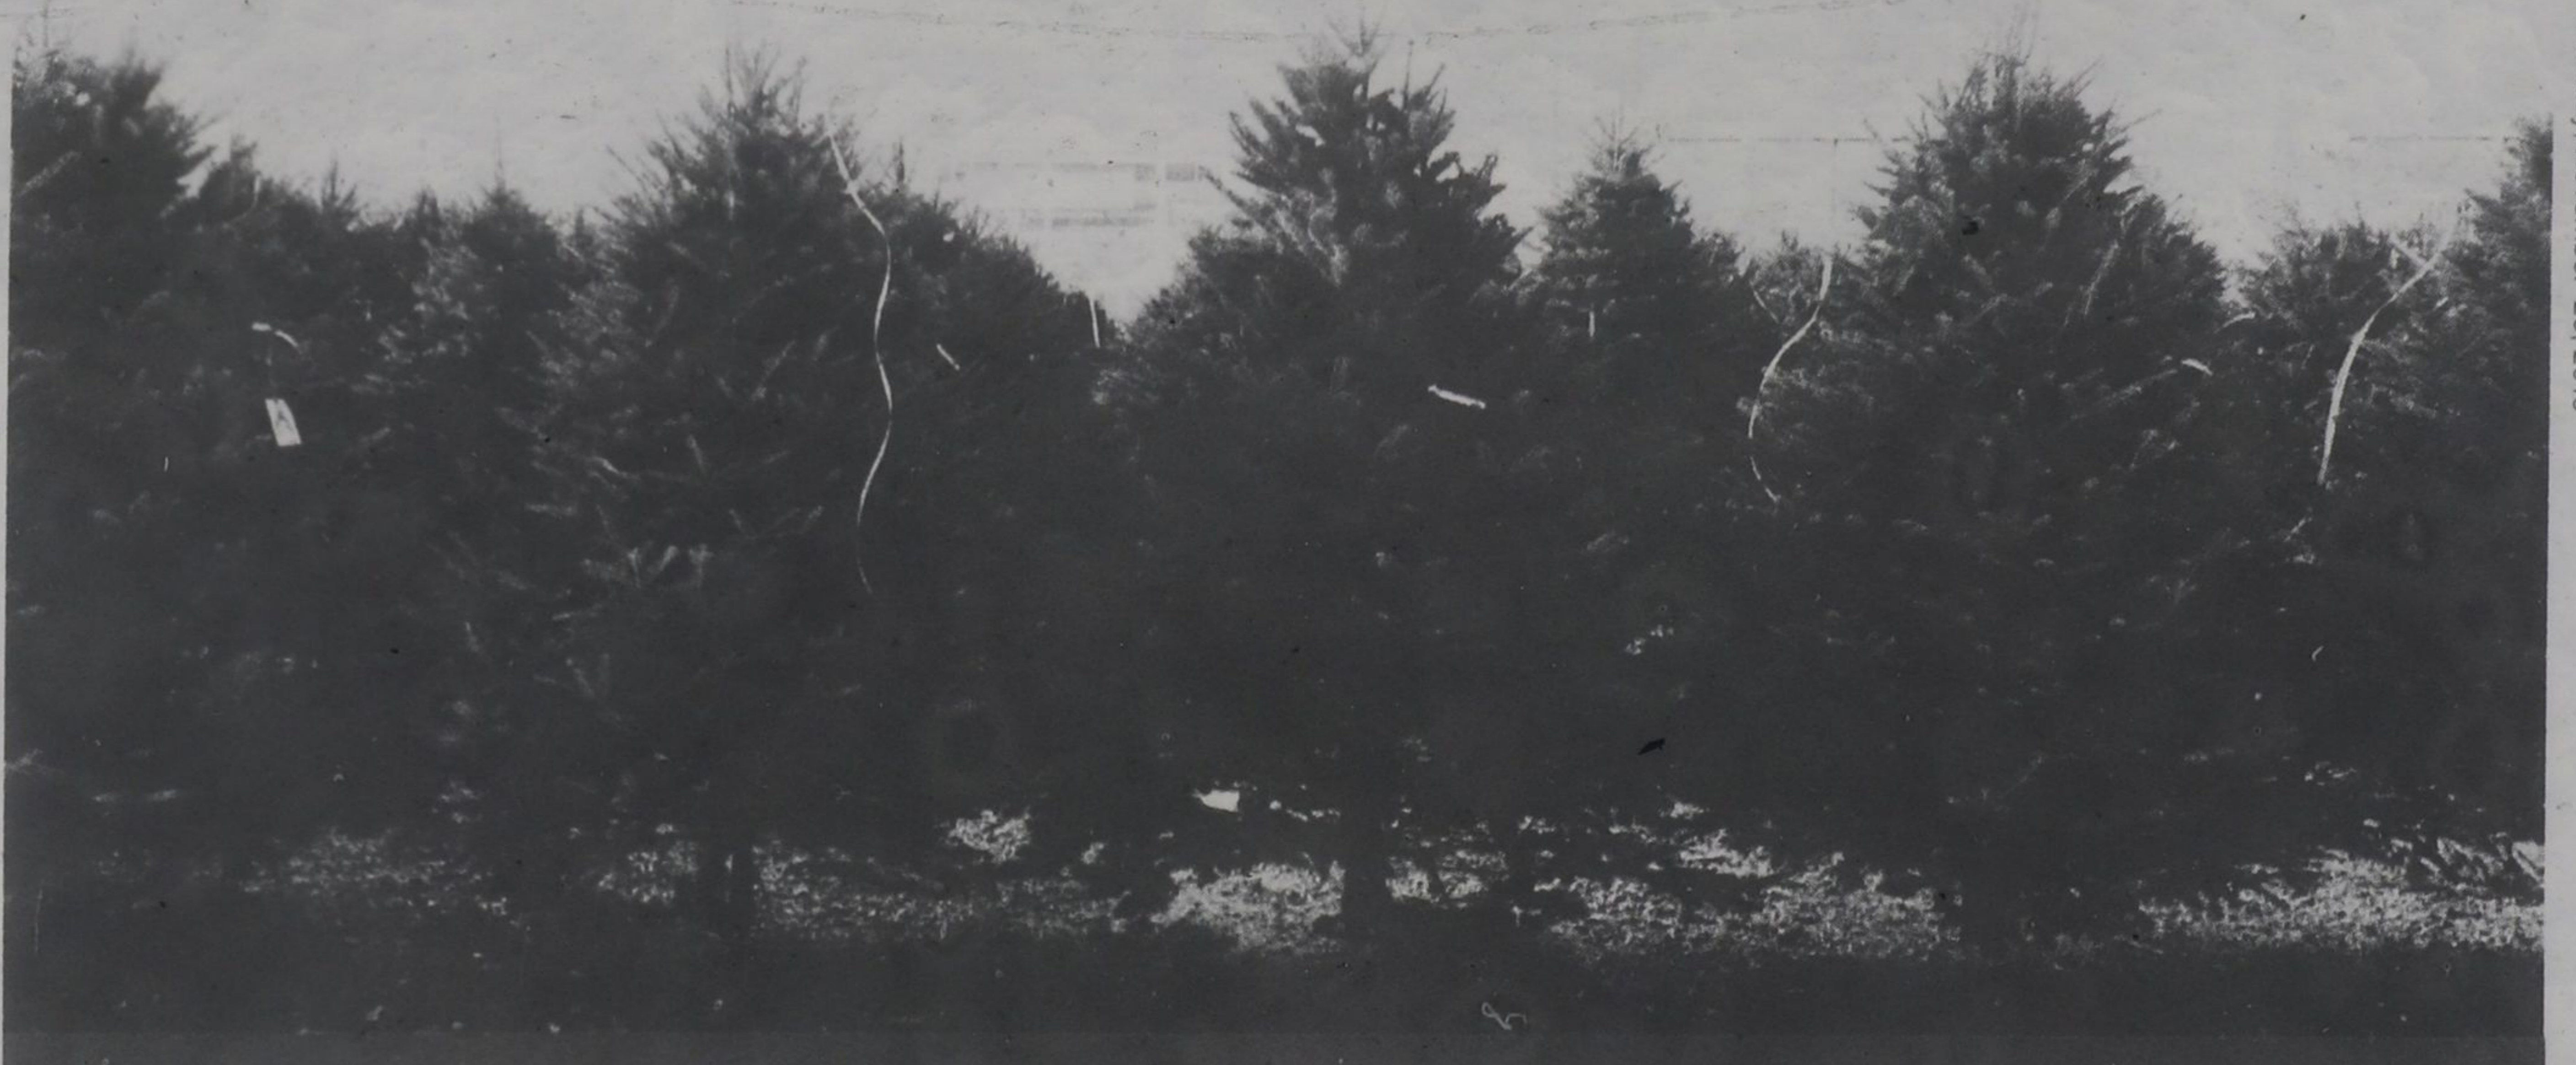

Anyone with information can call police at 905-825-4747 ext. 2281, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
