'What's all over town?' 'Mud!' Jane's eyes dropped. A-writer in one of our local papers. speaks of a friend of his who has always been accustomed to the pen. Is the friend an author or a pig? A western editor says that a farmer in his neighborhood made a scarcrow so very frightful that one old crow went and brought back all the corn he had stolen for several days.

A Quaker hearing a person tell how much he had felt for another who was in distress, and needed assistance, drily asked him, 'Friend, hast thou felt in thy pockets for him?'

A Dutchman's heart rending soliloguy is described thus: - She lofes Shon Mickle as petter as I, pecause he has got coople tollars more as I has.

The absence of specie, says an Américan paper, is giving a new cause other day heard his father threaten that of Common and Fancy Furniture, which looked in his face, and coolly asked him where he would get the specie!

THREE WONDERS IN HEAVEN .-John Newton said: "When I get to heaven, I shall see three wonders there. The first wonder will be to see so many people there whom I did not expect to see; the second wonder will be to miss many people whom I did expect to see; and the third and greatest wonder of all will be to find myself there."
