The building on Mill Street lately recupied by Wm. Barber, Esq.

ROBERT YOUNG. G. C. MCKENZIE, son and Brass Founder, and Machinist, Foundry on Water-st. 1-17.

T. RUSTON. Chemist and Druggist, Dyestuffs, Seeds and Stationery, Main street.

D. MCKINNON General Blacksmith, Main Street. Saw-gum-ming, etc., done en short notice. EXCHANGE MOTEL, BY THOMAS CLARK, GEORGETOWN, C.W.

DUSSES to and from the Station, reg-Dularly. Every attention paid to the & Magurn's Drug Store, Main Street. entive Hostlers. 3-5-1 y.

CHRONOMETER AND TOH MAKER, pied by Dr. Crooker.

JEWELLER &C.,

NEW STORE, MAIN-8T., GEORGETOWN. TARGE Selections of Watches, Clocks, I and Jewellry, particularly of Irish Bog Ont. Terms moderate and strictly Cash. All week warranted to give satisfaction, or the money returned. Georgetown, Nov. 27th, 1866. 26-ly

FROM TORONTO, MAN always be found at A. Galbraiths's U Shep, Main Street, GEORGETOWN, tions of Watches and Clocks in such a man-

that will defy competition. Jewelry neatly | Wilton, Dec. 1, Seergetown, May 17, 1864.

W. Barber & Bros', PAPER MANUFACTURER Georgetown.

Printing & Wrapping Paper enstantly on hand and made to order WOOL CARDING

CLOTH DRESSING on the shortestnotice. Cotton Rags in any quantity will be received at their Paper attended to. Mill in return for Cash. Highest price paid in Cash for Wool.

BENTIST RY L. L. BENNE I,

TRAVIS BUILDING, Georgetown, C. W. having permanently located in this village, would respectfully announce to its citizens and those of the surrounding country, that he is fully prepared to execute the most artistic manner, any kind of worl belonging to his profession

ARTIFICIAL TEETH Inserted in the finest styles, from one to s entire set, at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction. Teeth filled in the best manner. Gleansing, extracting, and all other operations performed with great care. Georgetown, January 3rd, 1865.

MILTON.

CHARLES H. THOMPSON, DEGS to inform the public that he is In his New and Commodious three story Stone Hotel, on Main Street, where he will be most happy to wait upon his old customers and the public generally,

A good Livery Stable in connection where Horses and Carriges can alway be had on reasonable terms. Milton. Feb. 24. 1864.

And General Stage House,

THE Subscriber begs to inform the Pub. | WOR the County of Halton. Sales at-L lie that he has moved to his new Hotel. on the corner of Main and Brown Streets. where he will be glad to wait upon his old sustomers. He has spared neither pains nor expense in making his House a firstclass Hotel, and all who favor him with their patronage will receive every attention. He would also inform the pub-

Milton and Bronte. He also runs a daily Stage between Milton and Georgetown. JOHN WALLACE. Milton, Peb. 23rd, 1864 v3.39-1y

1859] HENRY GRIST, [1866 Departmental, Parliamentary,

OTTAWA.

Transacts business with the Crown Lands out Patents for Inventions; Obtains In- Bark. corporation for Companies by Letters Patent; Drafts and takes charge of Private Bills during the Session, &c., for parties remding elsewhere.

Hamilton; Messrs. R. Lewis & Son, Toronto; W. M. Wilson, Esq., Simcoe; Hon. J. Carling, London; R. Bull, Esq., Inspector of Agencies, Colonial Life Assurance Co. Ottawa, May, 23rd, 1866. 50-tf

Dentists Brampton and Guelph

Messrs T. & G visit ACTON First and OSTVILLE First and Last Friday every Saturday. | sanur 2nd, 1867.

$1 A-YEAR

"THE PRESS-The Palladium of the People's Rights."

IN ADVANCE

VOL. VI.

MILTON, COUNTY OF HALTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1867.

Written for the CHAMPION.

Rome.

by day,

away.

John Bull,

to work,

boats to pie,

head of them,

like snakes.

your money?'

CUMMINSVILLE, March 18th. 1867.

Nearly opposite the church of St Se-inn, narrow and lofty, with an indented that belong to them,

Their pleasure be done, but as sure as Poetrn.

THE FINNEGANS.

[No. XLII!

Milton Business Directory. D. ROBERTSON, M. D., C. M. Graduate of the University of McGill College, Montreal. MILTON, C. W

Office-Two doors West of Willmott RESIDENCE—On Mill Street, next door to Tice Bastedo, Esq. Milton, Nov. 1. 1866.

W. H. Street, N.I. D. PHYSICIAN, SURGEON & ACCOUCHEUR OFFICE AND RESIDENCE-That lately occu-

Milton, Oct. 10 1866. THOS. G. MATHESON, B. A. BARRISTER AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, NOTARY PUBLIC; & OFFICE-Next door to Mr. Christie's Store, Main Street, MILTON, C. W. October 11th, 1866.

JOHN DEWAR, Jr., Barrister and Attorney-at-Law, NOTARY PUBLIC, SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY CONVEYANCER &c., Main Street, Mitton.

G. T. BASTEDO more he is prepared to repair all descrip- Erown Attorney, Barrister, &c., MILTON. ner as will ensure satisfaction, and at prices

Watshes, Clocks and Jewelry For Sale! DR. C. FREEMAN, MILTON. Consulting Physician & Surgeon. FFICE HOURS-From 8 until 10 A. M. U daily, and every Tuesday forenoon. CONSULTATION DAYS-Tuesday forenoon and Saturday afternoon. Milton, Oct. 19, 1864.

Glazier and Paper Hanger.

CHOP on Martin Street, Milton. ders lest at Thompson's Hotel, will be P. B. ZIMMERMAN, Contractor for House Building, Valuator &

Plans of Buildings drawn on short notice Carpenter and Joiner work attended to reasonable prices. Milton, May 26, 1864. DR.S. CARTER,

(LATE OF NELSON) RESIDENCE-The Late Residence of ' Racey, Esq. CONSULTATION DAYS .- Tuesdays and Fridays, from 9 to 11 A.M. MONEY TO LOAN $4,000 on hand for investment premises to class security, on real estate. At Latton, Oct. 25, '65. tf.

Opposite Ismond's Hotel, MAIN STREET, MILTON. All orders promptly attended to. Terms

Milton, July 4th, 1866. MILTON, C. VV. BERNER

tended to in any part of the County reasonable terms, and at short notice, Milton, Sept. 27th, 1864.

Milton

THE Subscriber will pay the Highest Market Price in Cash For any Quantity of

GREEN HIDES A Large Stock of Assorted Leather kept | Hostler always on hand.

and other Government Departments; takes Immediately. $4,00 a cord paid for Good SAMUEL F. TAYLOR.

REFERENCES:—Hon. A. Campbell, Com-missioner of Crown Lands; R. Juson, Esq., Hamilton; Messrs, R. Lewis & Son, Toron MR. EAGER wishes to sell or rent his IVI former residence, situated on Martin Street. There is a good house, garden, and every convenience for a family. Terms easy—title indisputable. Mr. Eager is willing to exchange the above property for wild land.

A. RYAN.

THIS HOUSE has been thoroughly reber takes this opportunity of inviting the patronage of the traveling public. Every attention paid to the comfort of guests. Good Stabling and attentive hostlers Stewarttown, Aug. 31, 1868.

Robert Swanton Appelbe, DARRISTER, ATTORNEY, and SOLI-D CITUR IN CHANCERY. OAHVILLE

TYRONE HOTEL. manner as any Hotel in the county. Good stabling. Every attention paid to visitors. N. B. There is a Store in connection with this Ho tel. Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., kept constantly on THOMAS WHITE, Collector of Inland Revenue, Hess Street, near York. Office hours from 9 to 4 o'clock. Hamilton, Oct. 27, 1863. T.B. WINN, M.B.

Graduate of the University of Toronto. HALTONVILLE, - - NASSAGAWEYA.

CONSULTATIONDAY-EVERY THURSDAY. Na-sagaweya, Nov. 1, 1866. 22, 1y

NELSON HOUSE VILLAGE OF NELSON, C.W. J. E. BURGER, Propprietor VERY attention paid to the traveling public. Good Stabling and an atten- Hotel. tive Hostler. Nelson, Jan. 27th, 1863.

CANADIAN HOTEL, OAKVILLE.

N. B. -Railway Travelers can rely upon Nassagaweya, April 5, 1864. Omnibus Conveyance to and from the Cars. JOHN WRAY, Proprietor. Oakville, July 25th, 1866.

Robt. Dolmage ISSUER OF . PALERMO.

A. MATTHEWS DRACTICAL WATCHMAKER and JEW-ELLER, attends punctually to repairing All work warranted. He keeps a constant supply of Good WATCHES, CLOCKS, WEDDING RINGS CONCERTINAS, FANCY GOODS, &c. Also BURGLAR'S ALARMS Which should be in the hands of all. the size of a pocket knife and can be fastened in the door of a room as to shoot any one 3-1y-52 entering, or merely give an alarm without njuring. Price only $1.50. Oakville, Aug. 16, 1866.

4th Concession. Nassagaweya, being Running Water. Apply to composed of 160 Acres: 60 improved, the rest covered with Maple. Beach, &c, with some good Pine. A good Well and never failing spring in the front, and a stream in the uncleared portion, with two good Log Houses and Barn, situated half a mile from Campbellsville, and half way between Guelph and Wellington Square. Terms Title indispurable. Apply on the WILLIAY JOB. May 29th, 1866.

MONEY TOLOAN.

of Upper Canada have funds for investment on the security of first-class town and farm property, and are also prepared to purchase good mortgages, The rate of interest on loans is 8 per cent. No commission charged, and expenses reduced. The loans are usually for five years, but can be made payable in yearly or halfyearly instalments if desired by Borrowers. A deposit of $10 required with each ap-For further information apply at the Company's Office in Kingston, or to SHERIFF MCKINDSEY.

W. BURGER, CITY JAMES STREET,

HAMILTON. WM. RICHARDSON, Proprietor.

THE undersigned having leased the above well known Hotel, next door to the Mechanics' Hall, and having renovated. papered and painted it throughout, and furnished it with entire new furniture of the best description, would respectfully invite his old friends and the public to give him a

THE TABLE is constantly supplied with all the substantials and delicacies of the season, and the charges are reasonable. THE BAR contains none but the choicest Wines, Liquors and Cigars, and of the best brands and vintage. AN OMNIBUS runs regularly to and from all the Trains and Steamboats. GOOD STABLING and an attentive

WILLIAM RICHARDSON.

NEW LiveryStable

By HENRY FALLIS, Stables-Opposite G. T. Bastedo's Office.

Milton, Nov. 8th 1866. In Esquesing. STEWARTTOWN HOTEL,

THE Executors of the Will of the late John Creighton will lease Lot 6, in the est Concession, Esquesing; 120 acres more or less. Immediate possession given. The Lease may be seen at David Bowman's on Esquesing, March 6th, 1867.

Money to Loan. N Good Farm Securty.

JOHN DEWAR, Jr. HORNBY EAST, BY THOMAS McCallum. This is Milton. O .10th. 1865. Dr. George Dice, PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, &C. A CARD. MAIN STREET, MILTON.

> And a hole in the swamp to stow them OFFICE-The building occupied by the late Dr. HUME, CONSULTATION DAYS-Wednesdays and Saturdays. Scum of humanity have they the vanity, DAVID McKINNON, OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—That lately occuOFFICE AND RESIDEN City Hotel Buildings, James street, opposite the Post Office, Hamilton.

> WILLIAM LAIDLAW. Barrister & Attorney-at-Law, SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY, CONVEYANCER, &c., &c., &c. Office. - One door west of Wallaces' new | And float Ireland across to the bay of New

S. R. Lister, IVI-ION COURT CLERK, COMMIS. I see no good reason for pouncing on us, sioner in Queen's Bench, Licensed Every attention is paid to the travelling Auctioneer, Accountant. &c. Debts collected on Commission. 3-45-ly If they cross the St. Clair they'll get into

Jan. 24. 1867.

REMOVAL.

THE Misses Wrigns in returning thanks to the ladies of Milton, for their very liberpaironage, beg leave to announce that they have removed to the premises lately occupied by W. Armstrong nearly opposite the Thompson House, where they intend to carry on Millinery and Dress-making on an enlarged scale. Fvery thing in their line promptly attended to in the latest style, A call is most respectfully solicited.

The property belonging to the onsisting of No. 21 and part of No. 22, gabie, small dusty casements, and the 1st Concession, North of Dundas Street, TRAFALGAR

Most of it recently stumped, and in a good OFFICE-Dempsey's Block, Main-st., Milton. FIRAT excellent farm. Lot No. 8. in the State of cultivation, with a fine Spring of > WM LAIDLAW, Barrister, Milton, August 7th, 1866.

T. L. White & Company, KILBRIDE,

FOR 20 CENTS PER GALLON. Kilbride, January 2nd, 1867.

T. L. WHITE & COMPAN

KILBRIDE Sell Goods for Cash Only, Pay cash for all kinds of merchantable produce, and retail all kinds of merchandise at very low rates.

Kilkride, January 2nd, 1867.

KILBRIDE, SELLS A BETTER CO TO.

121 CENTS PER YARD, Than any other house in the trade. Kiibride. January 2nd. '867. 30 tf IN COLUMN

MOTICE is hereby given that at the expiration of twenty days from the first ground appeared to my mind's oye. lently shaken. publication of this Notice, I will apply to Following the inspiration, I sketched on Joseph Davis, Esquire. Judge of the Surro | rapidly, and beneath my crayon grew a

Nelson, 28th Feb. 1867.

WILLIAM HALSTED.

Hastily undressing, I went to bed, again. Let them tread on our borders by night or I awoke, it was broad daylight. I done! We've a bullet of lead for each vagebond's

· Herr Heinrich Kapff, the painter?"

To think they can any-day, conquer young 'At your service, sir.'

Is their wrath at the full, for a brush with Cross the fish pond why not and at once ge Blow his batteries sky high, knock his guntion to these details. Seating himself in a gloomy reverse, What if the fall gloomy prison, The window looked on Surely we never wronged them nor one unfinished sketch, and he gazed at it he had done nothing to justify his re- ish the cackling of the live poultry, and axedly for several moments.

> 'I am. sir.' 'What is its price?' ly a design for a painting.'

Down with the ruffians and pound them delicately with the tips of his long sal- noted robber and assassin, who was holes in the wall, to facilitate their low finngers; and with the aid of his sentenced to be executed on the follow- mounting to the window. I climbed up, Bare tatterdemallions roughs and rapscalcye glass, he studied the sketch very ing morning. He wore a strait waist and holding the bars, managed to seat What business have they on this side of the closely.

A ray of sunshine entered obliquely I am the King of these Mountains! through the small dormer window. Von Spreckdahl's long nose became 'Ha! comrade, I'll keep a place for you checks; I felt an intense longing for more hooked, and his thick eyebrows to-morrow on my right!' contracted, lending a similar expression to his lean wrinkled face. The silence with a sinister smile, and my flesh crept was so profound, that I heard distinctly with horror. the plaintive buzzing of a fly caught in bald in Nuremberg stands an ancient roof surmounted by a plaster image 'Four feet by three,' of the Virgin. Many years ago, when beginning the world as a young 'Fifty ducats.' artist, I took up my abode in this quaint hostelry. I had come to Nurem berg in order to study the works of the old masters; but my funds running short, I was obliged to take portraitsand such portraits! Stout old ladies. each with with her cat on her lap; rosy burgomasters, wigged and cocked hatted all plentifully and impartially illuminated with ochre and vermillion. At length this resource began to fail; and mine bost, who at first had been all civility, began to important me in a ed the door of the inn, he was already Rapp down stairs?' somewhat insolent manner for the am- gone; I looked up and down the street, It was done by you,' repeated Von ount of my bill. One evening as I was but he was not to be seen. passing up stairs to my attic, Master Well, this is odd enough,' I muttered it? Rapp called after me: 'Hallo! young- and having remounted the five flights of '1 ster when are you going to pay me! stairs, I sat down at the table, brighten-

Your bill now amounts to one hundred ed by the unwonted gleam of gold, and any painting or engraving?" and sixty florins, ten kreuzers. Pray, resolved to finish the sketch without when am I likely to see the color of delay; a few more touches of the crayon I muttered some sort of indistinct few touches, try as I would, I could not lie reply, and hastening to my room, locked give. I had lost the clue to the design; the door, and threw myseif, dressed as the mysterious personage would not phatically: 'I have spoken the truth.' I was, on my bed. Revolving my mis- come out of the limbo of my brain. It Write, clerk, said Von Spreekdahl. erable position in my miserable position was of no use to draw and efface, and in my mind, all the genuine feeling for draw again, and retouch; the creature is being assassinated at the edge art, all the high aspirations after excel. of my pencil was as discordant with his well, have you imagined her figure lence which had hitherto buoyed me surroundings as one of Raphael's figures also? up, seemed to forsake me, and a sordid, would be in a village alchouse by Tenhungry craving for money took their iers. I threw down my crayon in des- You never saw her? place. At length my eyes grew heavy, pair, and the perspiration stood in large and my thoughts confused, and I slept drops on my forchead. At that mement profoundly for some hours. About two Rapp opened the door, and entered ab- Spreckdahl rose from his chair, then re- marvellous force, and rapidity. No o'clock, I awoke in a strange sort of ex. ruptly: he stood transfixed at the sight sumed his seat, he appeared to consult more nucertaintly, no more wavering citement. Having lighted my lamp, I of the pile of pucats. seized a piece of paper and a crayon. and drew a rapid sketch, in the Dutch painter, he cried; 'tell me again that have I done?' murmured I to myself. 30-tf tyle, feeling all the time as if the com you have no money!' position was not mine, but as if each stroke was suggested by some one, who and inopportune entrance, I suddenly carriage. We are going to the Metzger

That old villian Rapp,' I thoughtthe sketch remaining blank, I hesitated 'can he have met any serious injury?' what to put there; something seemed to move, to hover around it. Suddenly a foot turned up and detached from the mounting the stairs: my door was vio-'In the name of the law, open !'

Trembling, through I scarcely knew gate Court of the County of Halton, for leg joined to the foot, then a floating why, I obeyed. Two muscular hands Oscar Halsted, Joseph Halsted, and Arthur garment, at length the entire figure of instantly grasped my collar, and a fat Halsted, infant children of Elijah Buckbee an old woman, pale, emaciated, with little man in green uniform, who smelt Halsted, late of the township of Nelson, in dishevelled hair, thrown down against strongly of beer, come close to me and was given no time for reflection. My Stepping out into the corridor, he the County of Halton, Carriage Manufactur- the low parapet of a well, and struggling said : Heinrich Kapff, I arrect you. against a hand which clutched her 'Come along,' he cried roughly, I was drawing the scene of a murder, the crayon fell from my hand. I shud- made a sign to one of his men to hand-dered as I looked at the woman's face, cuff me. contracted by terror, while both her Resistance of course was useless. ing Lext door West of the Wesleyan her murderer. But his face, I saw it down stairs by some of the party; while

'I am fetigued,' I said, passing my and other scanty possessions. My cap- this woman; I never saw her until now, hand over my damp forehead; 'to-mor- tors thrust me into a covered carriage, May God help me!' I will finish the design; there and two of them entered after me, and remains but that one figure to put took their places one at cach side.

Let the Finnegans come like the legions of and before five minutes had elapsed. I Hans, said one of them to the other, was sunk in a profound slumber. When with a sour smile, 'he asks what he has Ruspel Hans, and left me alone in my hastened to dress, and was preparing to Soon a dark shadow enveloped us, as when but half aroused from it, my con-

> 'Come in!' The door opened, and a tall old man, a grey woolen cap on his head, and a Ah, the horrors of that night in prison ! dressed in black, stood on the thres-Bogtrotting, Bullrunning renegades pshaw, said he.

at the mean, scanty furniture, the low and a bucket. ceiling and the worm-eaten flooring; I scated myself on the straw, and re ed, inevitable fate are terrible. but my visitor seemed to pay no atteu- mained. I knew not how long, plunged

'And the dimensions of this painting, which were seated two judges, one of Herr Kapff?' said he at last, without them being my late visitor, Von Spreck-table, and drew from his pocket a long, did you become possessed of this drawwell-filled pursed of green silk. 'Fifty ling' ducats,' he repeated; 'there they are.' And throwing down the pieces, the baron saluted me, and was gone, before by me. I had sufficiently recovered from my amazement to utter a word of thanks. wrote down my reply. I heard his walking stick strike on each I thought within myself: What i crumbling walls, which were furnished stairs shouting as he bumped along: be obtained by a full confession of your 'They wait you in the Hall of Judgwith large hooks at the height of seven 'My money, you rascal-my money!' Retreating into my room, I locked I could not reply; I felt as if under or eight feet from the ground. On the left was a trellis of laths, through which and double-locked the door, while bursts the influence of some frightful dream, sure to make, said I, as I put the finishone saw an excut in quarters, suspend- of laughter from the other lodgers salut- and prepared to follow my guards in ing touch to the murderer's figure. ed by strong pullies from the roof of a ed Herr Rapp's downward progress - silence. ground. On the right, one corner of guard outside.

DAVID BOWMAN.

Ohurch, Main Street Milson. For particunot, it was hidden from me as by some the others ransacked my room in every I seem to be walking in a frightful us conturies—those who have not fully and allowed the furniture, and turn dream, seeing and axing without my long ever on the floor my poor wardrobe own vel. tion, and under a haunting con
Milton, Jan. 12th 1567.

Ohurch, Main Street Milson. For particunot, it was hidden from me as by some the others ransacked my room in every I seem to be walking in a frightful us conturies—those who have not fully dream, seeing and axing without my jug ever on the floor my poor wardrobe own vel. tion, and under a haunting conConcluded on fourth arge.

resume my task, when I heard two the carriage rolled under the gloomy science awoke to a sort of morbid activarchway which leads to the Raspel ity, and I began to ask myself if I bad Haus, or city prison. The jailer, with not really assassinated the old woman ! short pipe between his lips, received me Scated on my bundle of straw, I watchfrom my conductors, and having silent- ed a moonbeam struggling through the ly introduced me into a cell, locked and narrow window, and lighting up the barred the door, and left me to my re- sinister outline of the gibbet on the op-washed, presented no inscriptions or the Lord watches over you? People That the rich amateur Von Spreck- drawings, save a rude sketch of a gibbet, say that it is better to suffer double as dahl, who was also judge of the Crimin probably executed by my predecessor. an immocent man than as a guilty one, al Tribunal, should condescend to visit It was lighted by a small window, nine and as regards the state of the soul, it my poor attie, was indeed an unlooked or ten feet from the ground, and the certainly is; but the poor injured body for event. I cast an embarrased glance furniture consisted of a bundle of straw suffering unjustly, robels, and its trans-near my small table: 'Herr Kapff,' he down stairs had inflicted some mortal the street. It was a market day, and F injury on my landlord? The fellow heard the rolling of the carts laden with At that moment, his eyes fell on the was a miser and insolent; but, after all, fruit and vegotables. I could distinguceiving such rough treatment at my the animated discourse of the butter-'Are you the author of this drawing?' hands. What would be the upshot of women. As the morning advanced, the he asked, looking at me with the same it all? While revolving this uncom- noise became greater, and the buzz and attention which he had bestowed on my fortable question, the door grated on its movement of life around me seemed to hinges; my jailer appeared, and desired restore courage to my heart. I felt an me to follow him. Two turnkeys placed irresistable desire to see what was going themselves one on each side of me, and on around me, and to look once more on 'I do not sell my sketches; it is mere- we walked on. We traversed gloomy the faces of my fellow-men. corridors, feebly lighted by interior My predecessors in the cell, animated 'Ah!' said he, taking up the paper windows. I saw behind a grating a no doubt, by a like desire, had scooped coat, and was singing with a hoarse voice, myself on the narrow ledge. Once there As I passed, he shouted after me;

> The turnkeys looked at each other I was conducted into a gloomy sort of judgment hall at the upper end of ter, provided only that I live!

ear with the feather of his pen, sat be fore a table. Von Spreckdahl, raising his voice. My visitor laid the sketch on the addressed me: 'Henrich Kapff, how

> He showed me the nocturnal sketch I examined it and replied: 'It was done There was a silence, and the olerk stair as he descended, and I ran down the meaning of this? What connection the crowd, a butcher passed by, his back. quickly after him. But when I reach- can the sketch have with my pushing bent under the weight of an enormous,

'It was a fancy sketch.' 'You have not copied the details from 'No, sir; I invented them all.' 'Prisoner,' said the judge, in a severe were all that was required. But these tone, I advise you to reflect. Do not

I reddened with anger, and said em-'And this woman,' continued he, 'who

·Certainly.

in a low tone with his colleague. 'Ha! ha! I have caught you, master- What can it be all about? What ed the luckless woman's throat; I saw Addressing my guards, Von Spreck- At ten o'clock the the jailer entered my Enraged at the man's insolent look dahl said: 'Conduct the prisoner to the sell, merely used my hand and pencil as un- seized him by the shoulders, and pushed Strasse.—Heinrich Kapff, he continued surprise at my sketch. conscious and unresisting instruments, him violently outside the door. The you are pursuing a deplorable path.— 'Go ask my judge to come hither,' I The shortch thus traced represented a landing-place was very narrow; he missglooms court, surrounded by lofty but ed his footing, and rolled down several inflexable, the mercy of God may yet ish ardour.

shed. Streams of blood flowed across This little adventure aroused me: I re- Two policemen and I entered the shortened on the wall, the features stood the pavement, and met in a trench filled sumed my crayon, and was in the act of carriage, which rolled along through out with wonderfri force and reality. with refuse and rubbish. At one end of making another attempt on the impractiwith refuse and rubbish. At one end of making another attempt on the impractiseveral streets. One of my guards took
The jailer went out, and in a few the court was a cart-house, through the cable corner of the sketch, when a clash out his snuff box, and offered a pinch minutes the two judges appeared. With open door of which were seen a pile of wood and some bundles of straw. Pieces posite caught my ear. I looked out of extended my finger and thumb toward every limb, I said to them; 'Behold of ragged rope, an old hen-coop, and a the window, and saw several policemen the box, but its owner drew it back the assay in! broken rabbit-hutch littered the fore fully armed, stationed, and keeping with a gesture of aversion, and quickly replaced it in his pocket.

I felt the hot tingling blood mount to my forehead, but before I could speak Confused voices, and heavy steps the carriage stopped. One of the pol- this moment he is in the market, cutting seeing his comrade read to receive me he thrust me rudely out, All these precautions to secure my person argued no good, but just then I the man, replied he in a grave tone. white but rather like the effect of nightmare and counted the minutes, then as long

Prisoner ! said Von Spreekdahl in a solemn youce, have you got anything to made no answer. Do rou acknowledge that you threw this woman, Theresa Becker, into this well, after having strangled her and taken possession of her money? 'No. I gried-'no! I do not know 'It is enough,' said he in a dry tone; and then, without adding another word, What have I done?' I enquired he and his colleague took their depar-

> My guards conducted me back to the . I fell into a profound stupor, and ports of recoiling horror stits undeserve

Day dawned, slowly lighted up my gazed entranced on the crowd, the life, life as life, simply to breathe, and move, and feel the sun. Ah! I - exclaimed to live-only to live! Let them sentence me to hard labor; let them attach a weight to my leg. What does it mat-

The quaint old market on which I looked offered a gay and animated specdahl. A clerk employed in tickling his tacle. The peasant-women in their Bavarian costumes were seated behind their baskets of eggs, fruit and vegetables and their cages filled with poultry; but chers with naked arms were chopping meat on their blocks; peasants with their large-brimmed felt hats set far back on their heads, leaned on their stout holly sticks, and smoked their pipes .-The changing, animated scene captivated my attention, and, in spite of me, distracted my thoughts from my sad quarter of beef which he bore on his shoulders. His arms were bare, his el-Spreckdahl. 'What is the subject of hows raised, his head bent down in front. His hair falling down in a measure concealed his face, and yet at the first glance I shuddered. 'It is he!' I exclaimed inwardly. All my blood flew back to my beart. I leaped from the window down into my prison, shivering, my teeth chattering, while the rebellious blood flowed back again, and mounted hotly to my cheeks and torchead.

It is he! He is there—there—and I -I must die to expiate his erime! O my God, help me! What am I to do? A sudden idea, an inspiration, at I. believe, from heaven darted through my mind. I put my hand into my; coat pocket, and found my case of crayons Rushing to the clean white-washed wall With an indignant gesture, Von I sketched the scene of the murder with attempts. I knew the man who graspas if he were sitting to me for his portrait

'What is this?' he said, looking with ment, replied he. looked as if it lived and breathed; fore.

Von Spreckdahl carefully and quietly or amined the sketch. His name?' he icemen got out while the other neld me up meat at the third stall on the left, as fettered as I was, by the Sollar, until you enter from the Trabenten Strasse. What do you advise ? said my judge How his colleague. That we should instantly send for guards hurried me along a narrow, filthy gave his orders to the policemen station-For what erime? I enquired, as I alley bounded by high walls and through cd there, During their absence, the which chief of police hick dark liquid. Arrived at the end, plating the sketch. Suffering from they opened a door and pushed me be strong reaction, I sank on the ground fore them into a square court. During and buried my head between my knees. our progress, a strange horror had taken | Soon steps resounded from afar alone possession of me, not arising from the the vaulted passage. Those who have hands convulsively grasped the arm of was effectually secured, and conveyed uncertein and my position, pot waited for the hour of deliverance, res.

RIDE $1,00 PER LB. th and flavor.

tnership. have entered into Coe general practice of v at Brampton, under COTNE & CLARK. JNO. COYNE, J. P. CLARK.

WRIGHT.

of the TORONTO. L. Simmons the plates ains, a statement of the

buit, at my chambers, DE HALL and of March, 1867 on being the time appo. on the c'aims. teenth day of January 18 gned,) A. N. BUELL.

Master 35-5

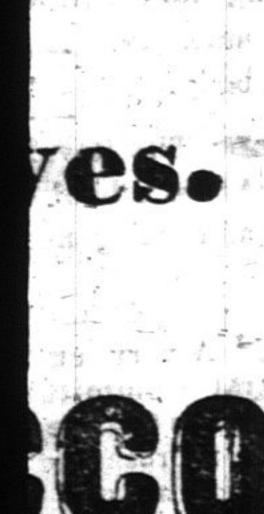

J. P. CUMMINS, 1867. illmotts

RRIAGE LICENSES.

ncery CRITTUE n order of the Court of in the matter of the he died in or about the £65, are on or before the ay of March, 1867. post, prepaid, to

emptorily excluded fit

COMPANY,

eet Milton.